(54) Title: A DEVELOPMENT TOOL FOR GENERATING BROWSER-INDEPENDENT POP-UP WINDOWS

(57) Abstract: A development tool for generating interactive help windows from SGML or XML definition files. The development tool supports the use of a defined keyword in link definitions in the definition files. The development tool adding a JavaScript function definition to an output HTML file, the function generating a new window having content defined by a file specified by a parameter for the function. The development tool replacing the link definitions including the defined keyword with calls to the JavaScript function. The development tool generating a pop-up definition HTML file having window content based on an SGML or XML definition provided to the development tool. The calls to the JavaScript function being defined in the HTML output file to pass the name of the pop-up definition HTML file as a parameter.

* Special categories of cited documents:

*A* document defining the general state of the art which is not considered to be of particular relevance

*E* earlier document but published on or after the international filing date

*L* document which may throw doubts on priority claim(s) or which is cited to establish the publication date of another citation or other special reason (as specified)

*O* document referring to an oral disclosure, use, exhibition or other means

*P* document published prior to the international filing date but later than the priority date claimed

*T* later document published after the international filing date or priority date and not in conflict with the application but cited to understand the principle or theory underlying the invention

*X* document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered novel or cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is taken alone

*Y* document of particular relevance; the claimed invention cannot be considered to involve an inventive step when the document is combined with one or more other such documents, such combination being obvious to a person skilled in the art.
